

tted to raise it only after the Speaker has given his ok and at such time and date as the Speaker may fix."

SRI P. RAMDEV.—I have sent a motion under 312. My point of order is that the Members who raise the issue under 312 are allowed to make a statement, then the Minister will reply and lastly the members are allowed to ask clarifications. That has been the tradition in this House.

CHAIRMAN.—Please read the Rule 312.

SRI P. RAMDEV.—I know that Rule 312. But, what is the intention.

CHAIRMAN.—Convention is only in the absence of Rule.

SRI P. RAMDEV.—How other hon. Members are allowed to ask clarifications contrary to the Rule? I humbly submit that rules have been violated in the House. Sir, according to Mahajan Commission Housage village goes to Maharashtra.

CHAIRMAN.—There is no point of order.

SRI P. RAMDEV.—The Chair is setting out a bad precedent. In protest, I am staging a walk out.
